Complaints and appeals procedure

If a candidate (or his/her parent/care-giver) has a general concern or complaint about the centre's delivery or administration of a qualification he/she is following, Clarity Independent School encourages him/her to try to resolve this informally in the first instance. A concern or complaint should be made in person, by telephone or in writing to the centre office (admin@clarity.essex.sch.uk) for the attention of the Exams Officer.

If a complaint fails to be resolved informally, the candidate (or his/her parent/care-giver) is then at liberty to make a formal complaint.

How to make a formal complaint

- A formal complaint should be submitted in writing by completing a complaints and appeals form

- Forms are available in Appendix 1 and printed from the school office
- Completed forms should be returned to the Head of Centre (d.hanson@clarity.essex.sch.uk)
- Forms received will be logged by the centre and acknowledged up to a period of seven calendar days

How a formal complaint is investigated

The head of centre will further investigate or appoint a member of the senior leadership team (who is not involved in the grounds for complaint and has no personal interest in the outcome) to investigate the complaint and report on the findings and conclusion.

The findings and conclusion will be provided to the complainant within 2 working weeks.

Appeals

Following the outcome, if the complainant remains dissatisfied and believes there are clear grounds, an appeal can be submitted. The centre will conduct appeals with reference to the JCQ document A guide to the awarding bodies' appeals processes. This document provides full details of the awarding bodies' appeals processes and the associated timescales. <http://www.jcq.org.uk/exams-office/appeals>

- Appeals can only be submitted after the outcome of a review of results has been reported to the centre. An appeal against a review of moderation decision cannot be made on behalf of an individual candidate.
- Any appeal must be submitted in writing to the Head of Centre by a complaints and appeals form, available in Appendix 1 and printed from the school office.
- The grounds for appeal must be clearly stated
- Forms received will be logged by the centre and acknowledged within 5 calendar days
- The appeal will be referred to a special Committee for consideration
- The Committee will inform the appellant of the final conclusion in due course
- Awarding bodies may charge a fee for appeals. This fee will be refunded if the appeal is upheld.
- In the case of internal candidates, only the head of centre can submit an appeal to the relevant awarding body.
- The centre will take account of all relevant factors and allow candidates or their parents/carers a reasonable opportunity to express their views.

This policy will be reviewed annually, in accordance with JCQ Regulations.

Overall responsibility for complaints and appeals in Clarity Independent School rests with the Head Teacher, Debbie Hanson.
